If you want reliable spectacles, perfectly adjusted to the eyes, visit Dr. Vansickel at Thomas Jewelry House, east side.

Sudden Death of a Prominent Citizen.

The sudden death of Capt. B. W. McCoy at noon Monday was a profound shock to the entire city Sunday night he suffered from pain in the region of the heart, but did not look upon the trouble as serious. Monday morning, he was never more cheerful, though always of cheerful disposition.

When the fatal attack came on he was shoveling the snow from the walk in front of his residence, and playfully joking with Mrs. McCoy. He went into the house and Mrs. McCoy applied a mustard plaster and sent for a physician, but before he arrived death had come.

Capt. McCoy was born at Clayton, Ill., April 13, 1838, his father being one of the first settlers in that community. He had resided in Kirksville for about twelve years, and during his sojourn here had formed innumerable and lasting friendships that will not be broken by his death.

In his family he was a model of kindness and affection, and his presence was cheerfulness and hope in the midst of uncertainty and gloom. As a citizen, father and husband no man was more highly respected, esteemed and loved, and his death will produce profound sorrow wherever he was known.

The funeral took place from the family residence Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Ely Commandery Knights Templar conducted the funeral service, and the remains were laid to rest in the Kirksville cemetery with the beautiful and impressive ceremonies of that order.

EFFECTS OF SUNSTROKE.

Terrific Pains in Shoulder, Head and Neck.

Could not Lie Down or Sleep for a Whole Week. Cured By Endopathic Treatment.

Mr. J. N. Morgan, a mechanic, and highly respected citizen, was overcome by the heat, while at work on Alderman Morris' residence in September, when we had the hot weather of the summer of 1895. The sunstroke left him in a perfectly helpless condition and terrific pains in his head, neck and shoulder were almost beyond endurance. For a whole week he was unable to sleep or even lie down, and he had to be propped up in a large arm chair.

He gave the Endopathic treatment, as practiced by Dr. Fulkerson, a trial, and experienced almost immediate relief. After a few treatments the intense suffering had gone, and he is now able to be up and attend to business as usual.

He looks upon Endopathy as a wonderful treatment, and says that its praises can not be too loudly spoken, or its virtues become too widely known.

The Grip.

An experience with this disease during all its past epidemics, warrants the bold claim that Dr. King's New Discovery will positively cure each and every case if taken in time, and patients takes the ordinary care to avoid exposure. Another thing has been proven that those who have used Dr. King's New Discovery, escaped the many troublesome after results of this disease. By all means get a bottle and try it. It is guaranteed, and money will be refunded if no good results follow its use. Sold by B. F. Henry, druggist.

The Crowds go There.

The great reductions, in all classes of goods now being made in the Big Clearing Sale at Pickler's Famous is drawing large crowds daily. Notwithstanding the inclement weather the past week, the Big Store has been full of customers. It is really surprising how cheap some of the goods are sold. This is very noticeable in all the clothing—suits for men and boys—pants for all ages—all are going at what may be truly called slaughter prices. Also the shoe and boot prices are greatly below the usual figures. All other goods are marked down for this sale from 10 to 30 per cent. All goods new and desirable.

Dr. J. W. Turner of Fairmont, Ill., and son, Mr. Alva M. Turner, of Montpelier, Ind., are in the city on a prospecting tour, and may decide to go into business here, as they are very favorably impressed with Kirksville.

Shibleys Point.

Our merchants seem to be busy in spite of hard times.

B. F. Matthew of Pennville was in our city Monday on business.

Our literary has not met for two weeks on account of protracted meeting.

Our school under the management of Mr. Price is doing good work for the little ones.

Several of our farmers are feeding stock which will go to market soon.

G. W. Scoobe of Green City was in our midst renewing old acquaintances last week.

Squire Branaman was turning his mill of justice Monday of this week, and consequently several are on the stool of repentance.

A severe snow storm visited our place Sunday evening. But on account of the ground not being frozen there is no sleighing.

Tuesday of this week was vouchered and the old boys were in town getting their papers executed. There is something near $1000 comes to this vicinity each quarter.

Rev. Strommyer of U. B. church with the Rev. I. W. McKee has been holding a series of meetings here. Several conversions and accessions to the church.

J. B. Shott contemplates starting to Colorado soon; also Mr. D. K. Hendricks goes to state of Washington soon. These are both good citizens and we are sorry to lose them.

The usual spring change will soon commence, Sam Elsea will soon move where S. D. Elsea now lives who will go where J. W. Elsea now is, and J. W. will move on the farm of B. F. Elsea who expects to move to Kirksville to reside in the future.

Evergreen Park.

All the populists down this way are bald-headed.

Mrs. T. P. Cook, after spending several days in Kirksville, returned home last Tuesday.

Uncle Thomas Riner who owns many hundred acres of land, is feeding a large number of cattle.

William Barnhill, one of the first settlers of Knox county, spent a few days last week reconnoitering around the old homestead.

Miss Lizzie Hones, of near Knox City, closed one of the most successful schools last Friday that has ever been taught in Van Horn district.

Miss Annie Fowler, a niece of ye scribe, after teaching a successful term of school near the Park is now a student at the State Normal at Kirksville.

T. P. Cook, one of the successful farmers of Knox county, sold to a Chicago firm on the 20th instant something near 1000 head of sheep, realizing large profits on money invested.

Jno. R. Howey, of Oaklawn College will give a concert about Feb. 8th, 1896, in Mt. Carmel church, situated one mile west of Evergreen Park.

The populists of Knox county have started a paper of their own. With Anthony Gibbons, as editor. It is known as the "Emancipator." That is rather a large name to assume, but then perhaps it is equal to the emergency, as the populists are about 250 strong in Knox.

Mrs. Dollie Coleman, who lives in a stone's throw of the Park made a visit to Kirksville on Wednesday last, seeking a suitable location in that beautiful city, with a view to making it her future home. We are sorry to lose so kind a neighborhood but what is our loss is Kirksville's gain.

I would merely remark that if a man wishes to marry and to take an active part in politics there is plenty of time to do both between now and next June. This is leap year remember, and the old maids are flying thick and fast, and the old bachelors are lining up in good shape. The above was fully demonstrated at the skating party the other night on the Fisher lake.

Perhaps a great many of the GRAPHIC readers would like to know where "Evergreen Park" is situated. Well, it is found in central part of Knox county, about six miles south of the county seat; it consists of 170 acres, but only a small portion of this is set aside for the much talked of Park. The buildings are of model structure, and—

It's cottage is a magic scene.
It's sheltering bowers are Evergreen.

Literary Note.

There is but one collection of the portraits of Lincoln that pretends to be complete, and that is the collection made by the publishers, of McClure's Magazine. They have been able to secure either originals or copies of every photograph, daguerreotype, ambrotype, drawing or painting of Lincoln, so far as known, in existence. There are in this collection fifty photographs, ambrotypes and daguerreotypes. The best collection of Lincoln heretofore published in any work contained ten portraits.

It is possible that the McClure's collection may be still further increased. The entire series of portraits will appear in McClure's Magazine during the current year. With the February number twenty of them will have been printed.

These portraits cover a period of about twenty years, are from originals taken in a great many different towns and cities under a great many different conditions, and are so varied and present Lincoln under so many different aspects, that the result of the whole collection is to make Lincoln vivid and real, so that even those who never saw him can form a very accurate idea of how the living man looked and acted.
